

Grand County Library District
Contract for Partnership with Other Organizations/Entities

The Grand County Library District (GCLD) seeks to create partnerships with other organizations that further the Library's mission, vision, values, and strategic plan, and provide enhanced services to the community.

The GCLD Programming Policy states:

“The Library may co-sponsor programs with individuals, businesses or community organizations. The Library will develop each partnership on an individual basis. The Library reserves the right to cancel an existing agreement or program at any time. The Library has final approval rights over programming.” (pending approval, 050808 AW)
