Grand County Library District

Executive Director Finalists

March 3, 2025 — Grand County Library District Executive Director Search Committee announced the finalists for the Executive Director position vacated by Polly Gallagher on January 25, 2025. The finalists are MaryAnn Degginger, Shanna Ganne, and Anna Szczepanski. The three finalists were selected by a committee comprised of two library board trustees, one library staff member, one Friends of Grand County Library, Inc. representative, and one Grand County Library Foundation representative.

Interviews of the finalists will be conducted during the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees on Tuesday, March 18, 2025 beginning at 5:30 p.m. The agenda will have time apportioned for public comment. Assuming a favorable outcome of the process, the Grand County Library District Board of Trustees expects to announce a new executive director no later than March 21, 2025.
